CENTER FIGHT FOR CARTER AND LYNN

Republicans Hope to Win at Least Two Legislators.

Local republican leaders are centering their fight on the election of Fin-ney Carter for the state senate and Charley Lynn for the lower house. They, however, say that they have not riven up hopes for the candidacy of A. Horn and E. Stuart Gill but they are playing safety first. There are a large number of republicans who believe that the candidacy of A. Horne of Horne's store will prove mere set.

Moderately low-pressure areas are centered over the upper lake region, Arizona and the extreme southern portion of Florida and during the past twenty-four hours the precipitation has been light to moderate, occurring at a few widely separated stations. A high-pressure area is crested over the Dakotas, with lower temperatures over the northern states west of the Mississippi river. Higher temperatures prevail over the lake region and southward to the guif. Clear weather with seasonable temperatures prevails over the south. Conditions are favorable for fair weather and not much change in temperature over this section tonight and Thursday.

Marshals Not Probing Columbian Iron Works Fire, as Its Origin Is Known.

ing a recent South Chattanooga fire The fire being investigated is not the of Horne's store, will prove more serious than is expected. However, the drawback seems to have been Mr. Horne entered the race too late, only getting in when it was learned that Josse Priddy had withdrawn.

In the meantime the democrats are in South Chattanooga, which recently was burned. It was stated by Marshal Josse Priddy had withdrawn.

In the meantime the democrats are shelling the woods to land all three of their candidates and while doubt is expressed as to one or two, the leaders have not given up heart. It was first thought that if the republicans landed a man in the lower house they would do so by the defeat of L. D. Miller, However, since the controversy between A. L. Emerson and Dr. Ernest R. Roach in which it is stated Mr. Emerson is charged with making derogatory statements about the Bible, it is thought this will weaken his chance and cause him to run behind Mr. Miller, Mr. Emerson in the priknown family of that name.

OPENING FOLLOWED BY

New York, Oct. 2.—A somewhat irregular opening was followed by an advance in the cotton market early today on amilier ginning returns than expected, the continued fevorable war news and a firmer technical position after the reaction of yesterday. First prices were 7 points lower to 110 points higher, but December soon sold up from 32.50c to 32.50c, with active months generally showing net gains of 256438 points. The advance met scattered realizing and there were irregular fluctuations preceding the publication of the government crop report at the end of the first half-hour.

The government crop report, placing the condition at 54.4 and the indicated yield at 11.518.000 bales, was very closely in line with expectations and had no important effect of consequence on the market. Later, however, it became more active on reports of an easier spot basis and increased southern offerings. Stop orders were uncovered on the break, which carried December off to 32.15c and January to 32.0c, or 40055 points net lower.

The decline was checked by trade buy-

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

New Orleans, Oct. 2.—Smaller ginning returns to Sept. 25 than expected caused a buying movement on the opening of the cotton market today. In the first half-hour of business prices were advanced 29937 points.

At the highest of the morning the most active months were 49964 points up. The larger estimate of the yield, compared with the figures of a month ago, following the report on condition, caused a selling wave, and in the trading up to noon prices fell 2093 points under the close of yesterday.

War news steadied the market at the decline and finally caused a recovery. At 1 o'clock the most active months were 184 points under the final quotations of yesterday.
